

Think Global and Speak Local

Globalization is one of the biggest challenges management teams face today. Growth in emerging markets is driving companies to expand into regions where English is not widely spoken. Whether training expatriated employees or developing local talent, management teams must confront the challenges of internal and external communication.

The lack of local language knowledge and cultural awareness hinders companies that want to break into unfamiliar markets. That is why multinational companies require multilingual solutions. Today's businesses need to think global and speak local.

History and Reputation

Language Intelligence can provide your business with a Global Language Strategy that can build a strong local team and deal with an unfamiliar market and culture.

We have been providing effective goal-oriented language and cultural training programs for multinational companies since 1988. Our graduates come from around the globe. Our roster of Fortune 500 companies recommends us as the company best able to improve employee performance by providing language solutions.

Global Network

Language Intelligence excels in preparing business executives, managers, and other personnel in facing intercultural communication challenges. Our global network is results-oriented, dynamic, and motivated. All of our instructors hold advanced degrees and are native speakers of the target language. We use a wide range of up-to-date learning tools, and select those according to individual client need, language level, and learning style.

If your company assigns employees abroad or works with international clients, the Language Intelligence language program can bring measurable results quickly. It is designed to completely focus on the learners' specific needs and goals.

Language Learning is our Business

We are focused on one thing: your language results.

Culture Training is our Passion

Our cross cultural programs provide much needed insight into cultural differences.

Personalized to your Employee's Needs

We offer a wide variety of highly flexible learning options adapted specifically to your employees' scheduling needs and learning preferences.

Keep it Simple

We make your interactions with us as simple and clear as possible. You will always have one trusted point of contact that is easily accessible and available to answer any queries and meet your needs efficiently and quickly.

Through delivering flexible learning options we are committed to providing you with innovative solutions that meet your ongoing and evolving needs.

Program Options: (Face-to-Face)

One-on-one

Private instruction for individuals through our global network of teachers and language schools—either off-site or on-site—offers maximum flexibility and attention. One-on-one is the quickest way to achieve fluency in the target language.

Semi-private and Small Groups

Semi-private instruction—either off-site or on-site—is for groups of two or three people who have similar levels of proficiency and compatible needs and goals. A benefit of group instruction is the increased amount of interaction among participants.

Meet Richard Meng:
Principal Scientist &
English Student

YouTube | 1:03 mins

Immersion

The Immersion program accelerates the learning process to achieve fluency in the shortest possible time. In this highly intensive program, learners spend 20 to 40 hours a week with their teacher and speak exclusively in the target language. Those who are new to the language begin communicating immediately. Advanced learners master the specialized language skills needed to prepare for professional or social situations.

L.I.V.E.™ (Language Intelligence Virtual Environment)

Private or semi-private instruction in the Language Intelligence virtual classroom offers personalized attention and flexibility. Our virtual classroom delivers a rich learning environment. It enables seamless interaction between the learner and instructor by offering web conferencing in high-definition video, desktop sharing, online whiteboards, markups on documents in real time, in addition to pictures and slides. Benefits include:

- Language learning wherever and whenever
- Elimination of geographic scheduling constraints and travel expenses
- Increased scheduling flexibility
- Lesson recording capability for future reference and review
- Optional online learning environment

Meet Jean-Claude:
French Teacher

YouTube | 1:02 mins

Self-Study/Supplementary

Audio

The audio program enables learners to sharpen their listening skills and expand their cultural knowledge outside of the classroom. Targeted up-to-date supplementary CDs or MP3s will assist them in reaching their language learning goals.

The audio program as a self-study and supplementary tool to face-to-face learning is recommended for all levels.

On-Demand Language Coach

This service provides you with individual assistance on a specific topic from a live language instructor. It's aimed at professionals needing language coaching on specific tasks, such as preparing a presentation, drafting a contract, writing a report, and other time-sensitive and targeted forms of communications.

About Language Intelligence

Founded in 1988 by President and CEO, Irene White, Language Intelligence is a client-focused company that meets the language and cross-cultural needs of businesses operating around the globe. Our services include foreign language and cross-cultural training, translation, localization, internationalization, and interpreting.

For a consultation to help you plan your personalized language program please contact:

Petra Henderson

Director, Language and Culture Training

E: phenderson@languageintelligence.com

P: (+1) 585 244 5578 x13