ELEARNING TRANSLATION SERVICES

eLearning Translation Services

With more than 25 years of experience, Language Intelligence offers only the best when in translation, language learning, culture training, and interpreting solutions. Our expert linguists work in more than 100 languages and counting, helping you expand your global reach.

Quality Focus

At Language Intelligence, we don't just use industry-norm and in-house tools to increase flexibility and drive down long-term costs—we use our localization and programming expertise to make your eLearning materials seem as if they were developed in the target language from the beginning.

We work with professional linguists who have expertise in a range of subjects to ensure that your translated eLearning materials are both linguistically, culturally, and technically optimized.
